

Call for Candidates for AMA Nomination for the ACGME Review Committee for Radiation Oncology

The AMA is soliciting AMA member candidates for nomination by the AMA Board of Trustees for a position for the Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education Review Committee for Radiation Oncology (ACGME RC-RAD ONC).

TERM

The term of these positions is 6 years, from July 1, 2025, through June 30, 2031.

TIME REQUIREMENT

Nominees must be able to devote sufficient time to the Review Committee's work. The Review Committee for Radiation Oncology meets two times per year (two Review Committee meetings for program review) usually in January and April. The duration of meetings is normally 1 to 2 days. Members are expected to attend all Review Committee meetings.

The nominee must have sufficient time to review program information (an estimated 10 hours for program review assignments for each meeting), to participate in subcommittee work (as assigned), to prepare for each Review Committee meeting by reviewing agenda items and related documents, and to participate in other activities of the Review Committee.

Anticipated meeting dates for new member(s) are as follows:

- Review Committee meeting to observe – January 9-10, 2025
- Two Review Committee meetings per year – usually during January and April
