

Government Relations Advocacy Fellow

The AMA Government Relations Advocacy Fellow \(GRAF\) offers medical students a unique opportunity to experience firsthand the intersection between organized medicine and the federal government as it relates to advocacy and policy-making. One fellow is selected each spring to live and work in Washington, D.C., as a full-time, paid member of the AMA's federal advocacy team for one year.

Responsibilities

- Research and analyze current issues in health and medical education policy
- Travel to medical schools around the U.S. to engage membership and develop leaders
- Plan and organize the annual AMA Medical Student Advocacy and Region Conference in Washington, D.C.
- Meet and work with leaders in health care policy and advocacy to implement the AMA's action plan on key issues

Term of Service: One year, commencing in June